

The no call list has been very effective in my household. I would like to see the restrictions remain in force.